Imperial Crown 1937

Luxury classic suiting in a fine merino wool rich blend 265g 8oz

Richard H Pexton, London, is renowned for supplying some of the finest qualities of tailoring cloth around the world.

Imperial Crown 1937 is a collection of refined classic suiting patterns capturing timeless style and elegance.

The collection, designed to reflect the time of the Royal Coronation of King George VI, symbolises the sovereignty of the Monarch as he became the head of state of the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth states around the world.

The Imperial Crown used for the Coronation has existed in various forms since the 15th century. Like all classics they are reinvented over time with refined standards. The jewels used on the 1937 Imperial Crown were first used in the crown for Queen Victoria in 1838. The Imperial Crown was then adjusted for the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.

The Imperial Crown 1937 collection is a fine merino rich wool blend which epitomises the enduring classical patterns woven in a modern fabric for today's fine suits.
